THE NORFOLK COURTS Fourth Day's Trial of the Coke-Ridgewell Shooting Case.

The Bureau of Employment and Labor, and the Free and Accepted Order of Moses Incorporated-The Police Court.

It is hardly probable from present in-dications that the trial of W. A. Coke for shooting Councilman James A. Ridgewell will be concluded this week. The fourth day of the trial was productive of considerable testimony, but it came practically from two or three witnesses. The case is progressing much slower than the attorneys had expected.

When the case was resumed yester-day morning the prosecution withdrew objection to Mrs. Marsh, the alleged proprietress of a disreputable house, being confronted with Mrs. Coke, wife of the defendant. Mr. Duncan stated that the Commonwealth had objected to this Thursday because it was thought it would be subjecting Mrs. Coke to an unjust trial, but she, after learning of the matter, wished to clear her name of the accusation that she had been at Mrs. Marsh's house.

THE NORFOLK COURTS

Fourth Day's Trial of the Coke-Ridgewell Shooting Case.

The Bureau of Employment and Labor, and the Free and Accepted Order of Moses Incorporated-The Police Court.

It is hardly probable from present in-dications that the trial of W. A. Coke for shooting Councilman James A. Ridgewell will be concluded this week. The fourth day of the trial was productive of considerable testimony, but it came practically from two or three witnesses. The case is progressing much slower than the attorneys had expected.

When the case was resumed yester-day morning the prosecution withdrew objection to Mrs. Marsh, the alleged proprietress of a disreputable house, being confronted with Mrs. Coke, wife of the defendant. Mr. Duncan stated that the Commonwealth had objected to this Thursday because it was thought it would be subjecting Mrs. Coke to an unjust trial, but she, after learning of the matter, wished to clear her name of the accusation that she had been at Mrs. Marsh's house.

Counsel for the defense objected, un-less they were allowed to put P. J. Morris on the stand to prove that Mrs. Marsh said to him directly after the shooting that Mr. Ridgewell and Mrs. Coke had visited her house. This was not allowed by the court.

THE TESTIMONY. D. L. Groner, attorney at law, was introduced to tell of the conversation which took place between the negro Brown, a witness in the case for the defense Thursday, and Mr. Thom, at the latter's office. Brown said, according to witness Groner, that he had never carried notes from Mrs. Coke to Mr. Ridgewell.

Arthur J. Hall, Mr. Ridgewell's book-keeper, next testified as to the correspondence between Mrs. O'Neill, Mrs. Coke's sister, and Mr. Ridgewell, which was introduced at the first day of the trial. He identified the letters, etc., consumed about an hour.

Dr. Douglas Leitch swore that when he took Mr. Ridgewell home the afternoon he was shot Mr. Ridgewell received a letter from Mrs. O'Neill. The letter was produced and recognized by Dr. Leitch.

Mayor C. Brooks Johnston, who had preserved the letter by request; also identified it.

Mr. Thom then offered it in evidence, but Captain Happer objected, and it was ruled out.

Detective Childress, of the police Police Court Trial and Judgment.

Judge Andy E. Calhoun, of the police court of Atlanta, Ga., recently passed a sentence of much importance to dyspeptics.

"I am a great sufferer from nervous sick headache and have found no remedy so effective as Tyner's Dyspepsia Remedy when taken when the headache first begins it invariably cures. A. E.
